About 'Letterhead exchange with Interact Club of Saffudin Sankar Academy'

Introduction:

The Interact Club of Seabird successfully organized a Letterhead Exchange with the Interact Club of Saffudin Sankar Academy, Bangladesh, with the objective of strengthening the relationship and creating a deeper bond between the two clubs. The exchange served as a meaningful platform for cultural exchange, idea sharing, and discussion of future collaborations. It provided both clubs with an opportunity to learn about each other's culture, traditions, diversity, and community-service activities while building a foundation for future joint initiatives.

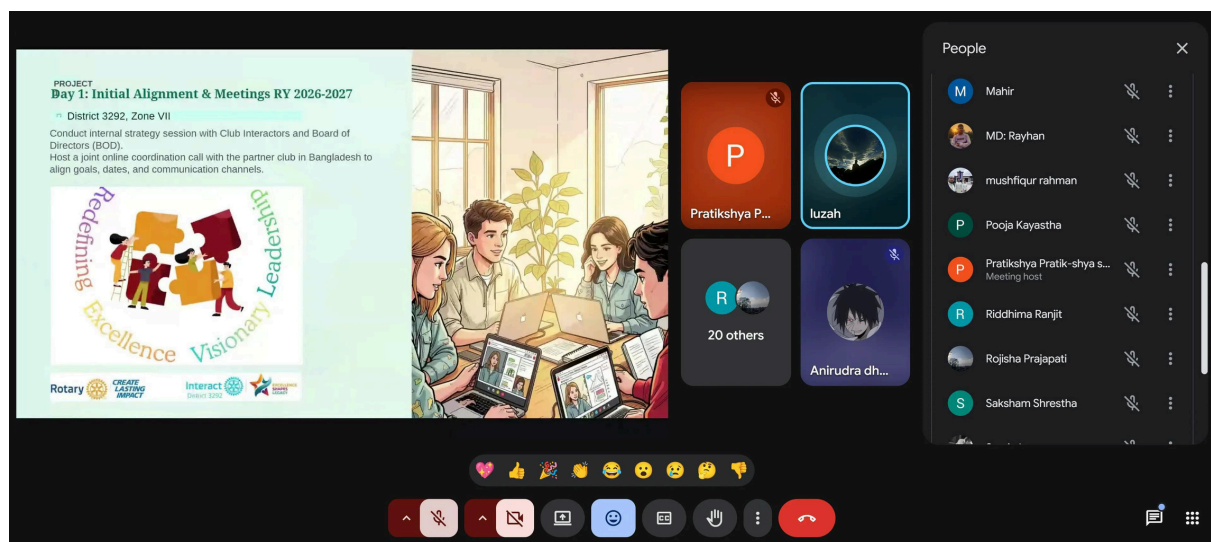

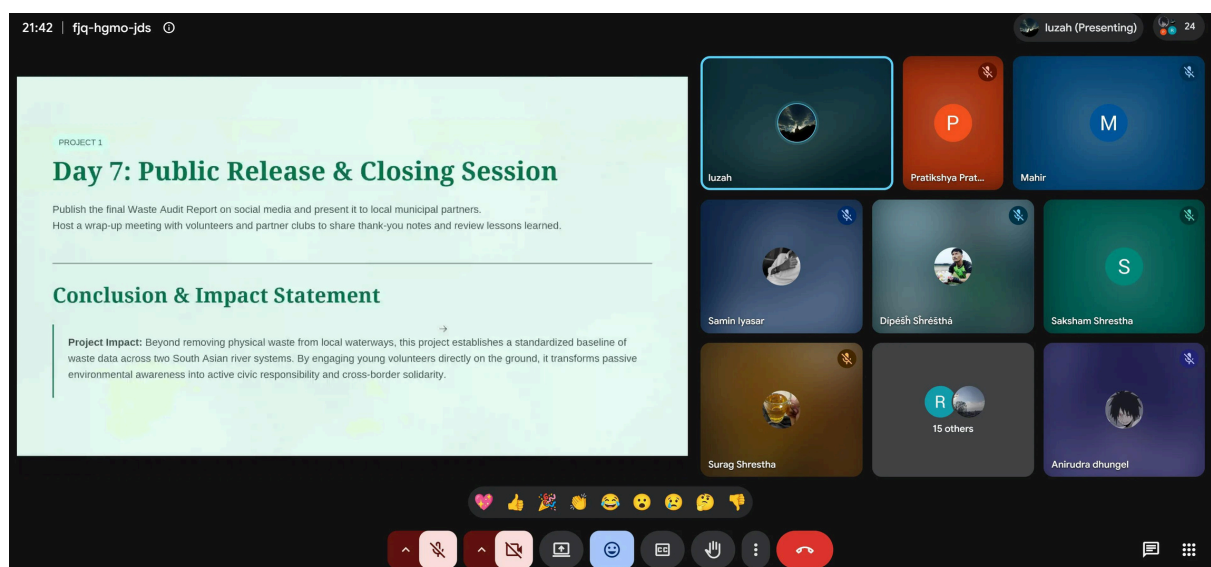

Project Summary:

The Letterhead Exchange with the Interact Club of Saffudin Sankar Academy, Bangladesh, was successfully conducted as an initiative to promote friendship, cultural understanding, and collaboration between the two clubs. During the program, both clubs shared presentations about their respective cultures, including traditional clothing, festivals, art, cultural diversity, and natural diversity. The members also discussed their yearly events and communityservice activities, including cleaning campaigns, donation programs, youth programs, and other social and community-related initiatives.

Feedbacks of Attendees:

1. “The exchange was a great opportunity to learn about Bangladeshi culture and share our own culture with them.”
2. “It was inspiring to exchange ideas and discuss future collaborations between the two clubs.”
3. “I enjoyed learning about their festivals, traditions, and community-service activities.”
4. “The exchange strengthened our friendship and gave us exciting ideas for future joint projects.”
